Notice.
To Whom it may Concern:
On the first of January, 1882, I will close my books for settlement in full, and will from that day do a strictly cash business.
The reasons for this change are:
1st. A credit business makes a large increase of labor.
2d. It depletes the working capital one half.
3d. It is an injustice to the man who pays cash, because prices are necessarily made higher.
Iola has lost a large trade in the past because her merchants done a credit business, and competitors in other towns could offer bargains which Iola could not do.
I expect to lose some valuable customers, which I shall regret, but I hope to convince the most of my friends that it is for their interest as well as mine. Please remember the time.
With thanks for past patronage and hoping for an increase in the future, I am,
Respectfully,
W. A. COWAN.

Rock Creek.
Weather all that could be expected. Farmers are improving it in the way of plowing; we hope to see the farmers more earnest in this matter; if more plowing was done in the fall we think better crops would be the result.
Mr. Welborn has completed an addition to his house which adds much to the appearance of the place. Mr. W. is engaged to Mr. Hartman as tinier. The farm will be conducted by his two sons.
Mr. Daniels has moved into his new house; we notice the plow, which means a good crop the coming year.
Mr. Kennedy has arrived from Davenport, Iowa; he will telegraph for his family as soon as his goods arrive. Mr. K. has long been shut up in the city and seems to enjoy the pure air of Kansas. He is at present stopping with Mr. Lewis Ayres.
Mrs. M. E. Degeer was announced to lecture on temperance at the Pleasant Valley M. E. Church on the evening of Dec. 4th. The church was crowded to hear the noted temperance lecturer, but she failed to put in an appearance, announcing by telegraph that she missed the train at a certain point. Those who came to hear her were sadly disappointed for a time, but the same lecture Tuesday evening, Dec. 8th, seemed to satisfy all present. Tuesday evening same, and with it a large congregation, but only to be disappointed again. It would be a hard matter now to get out a corporal's guard to hear Mr. Degeer lecture at the Pleasant Valley Church.

Teachers' Association.
To the Teachers of Allen County:
The teachers of this county have an association which meets every month. A few of the teachers of the county know this, the large majority do not. I beg to inform those who do not know of this association, that the next meeting will be held at Iola, Saturday, Dec. 24. The meetings are unusually interesting, and I feel well assured that when it is known that such meetings are being held the teachers will flock to them. Of course every enterprising teacher must acknowledge that one who does not try to learn his profession is unworthy of it and should quit it. My own opinion is that it is the duty of the County Board to give such a teacher a gentle reminder about certificate time that he has missed his vocation. To state it plainly: It is, in my opinion, the duty of the County Board to refuse certificates to all those who neglect to attend the Teachers' Association when in their power to do so. Those who have been attending need not fear that the Allen County Teachers' Association will die. There are those connected with the association who don't let anything die they are connected with.
The power and influence of the association, however, would be much greater if all would take part. When this is the case, the "select few" who have done a great deal of work in keeping up an interest in these meetings through all kinds of discouragements, will step "down and out" and give the association into the hands of those for whose benefit it was organized. Until then the "select few" will stand at their post. Teachers of Allen County! you are cordially invited, and earnestly urged, to attend the association. But if you will not come, we will get along without you. The educational interests of Allen County must not die because you neglect your duty. And they will not. Read the programme in this paper, and come.
P. H. HARRIS, President.

Ozark Items.
Dec. 12.—Weather warm and threatening.
Corn husking over for one more year.
Bush Bros., of Mo., have been trying to buy corn at 55 cents per bushel.
Hiram Lileurence ships hogs to-day from Colony. Many of our neighbors seem to be turning off their fatted pork.
We are sorry to note the fact that our neighbor, Wm. Vandever, has sold all of his personal property and expects to commence the hotel business at Moran. Mr. V. was a good farmer and we are sorry to lose him.
Osage now boasts of one more new school house. Being in the center of a township and in a beautiful valley, it has received the name of Center Valley. The house is large and well finished. Mr. Mayfield did the work on the entire building. Miss Southwick is already rendering good service as teacher.
Good time now for winter work. Improve it farmers. LONGHEED.

Geneva Jettings.
Dec. 14.—Very open weather.
Myriads of ducks.
Eighty at Sunday School Sabbath.
President in our last should be Presbyterian. Our fault, however.
A. E. Hoppes, brother-in-law to Frank Bogart, desires to purchase an eighty acre bottom farm.
Mr. Edson, on the old Joe Barton place, buried a nursing babe yesterday.
Different parties have taken pains to respond to our call for help, and to every one of them we feel grateful. Let the interest spread; for even if every citizen should appropriate and utilize "Geneva Jettings" it would just suit us.
Rev. S. M. Irwin, President; P. M. Luyster, Vice President; H. E. Vandeman, Secretary; Orlu. B. Miller, Treasurer; E. H. Funston, (State Senator) O. P. Haughawort, D. S. Leavitt, J. J. Black, and Wm. Denny are the official board of Geneva Presbyterian Academy. Its mission is to preserve the institution and all that pertains to it. At their session Thursday, nearly all being present, it was ordered to repaint and otherwise repair the building. Also, being without debt, having some money in the treasury, a good house furnished and in fair repair, and a fine location for a thorough-going christian school, the feeling was not only expressed, but encouraged, that inside of twelve months Geneva Academy will again be ready for students.
The Colony railroad surveyors have run two surveys across the town site, one north and one south. Opinion is divided about the road ever being built. A sudden storm over us as we record the death of Jasper Orville Patterson, only son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Patterson, living on the Osland property opposite stone church. This bright pretty boy of several summers fell a victim to membranous croup, Thursday p. m. Belonging to the flock in charge of Brother Longden, of Neosho Falls circuit, he was called to officiate, but other duties preventing, Rev. S. M. Irwin led the funeral service Friday, at two p. m. Brother and sister Patterson have warm sympathy for friends and neighbors.
Thursday evening there was an interesting and profitable magic lantern entertainment at the school house but we failed to learn the name of the lecturer. His main point was astronomy. John and Addie Browning, now of St. Louis, will please stand commissioned to extend hearty greeting from many friends, to their little daughter, of the 9th inst.
Wm. Davis in personal mention last week should be J. P.
Is it possible that citizens of Kansas, in this 1881, blindly, with stupid superstition, still believe in witchcraft? The occurrence at Colony Monday 4th inst. answers in the affirmative. As reported here the evidence clearly convicts of an arranged attempt to murder and an open boast to do it yet, but with a light fine of some $15 the guilty parties are set at liberty, free to accomplish their fiendish purpose.
We have no encouragement to give Judge Lynch, but in honest candor, we ask is it surprising that the long suffering sovereign (said to be) people, sometimes rise and execute simple justice?

Savonburg Chips.
W. P. Randall and family were up from Erie last week visiting relatives. Miss Minnie Butterfield has taken up her residence at Chanute.
August Nyman has bought 80 acres of land from A. Anderson.
Frank Root, our enterprising county superintendent, paid our school a visit on last Thursday.
W. E. Osburn moved to Bronson last Friday. Mr. Osburn leaves hosts of friends here. We hope that he may build up in business at his future home. He did not move his house, as we stated. He sold it to Mr. John Pearson.
We understand that A. M. Donley, from Urbana, Neosho county, will put up a blacksmith shop here in a few days.
Mr. Sylvester Stofor lost a valuable horse last week.
Mr. E. O. Hikok, editor of the Unknotown Star, was in our city two or three days last week on business connected with Mr. Brown's store.
There are some parties in our vicinity who have been dodging the law for some time. They might just as well surrender or leave the county, as we propose to arrest them if they ever come back.
Mr. Haden Wampler and son started last week on a hunting expedition to Arkansas.
Our debating and literary society is flourishing. We elected officers last Saturday evening for a term of four weeks. J. M. Randall, President; A. Linville, Vice President; A. Yoder, Secretary, J. Keen, Treasurer; Frank Leighton, Marshal, and F. Keen, editor. Our paper is called the Savonburg News. Question for next Saturday evening is, Resolved, that the negro is in a worse condition at the present time than he was before his freedom.

There will be a Christmas tree at Moran for the benefit of the Sabbath-school. The Sabbath-school is in a flourishing condition, with 70 in attendance last Sabbath.
In my last communication I omitted the name of Mr. Cyrus Clothier as one of the teachers in the Moran school.
Mr. Putnam and wife, of Arkansas, are visiting Mr. Putnam's sister Mrs. W. H. DeHart.
Mr. H. Waters shipped three car loads of hogs from Moran last week; he says they were an extra good lot.
Mr. W. P. Gorrell has been confined to his house for several days with a sore jaw.
Mrs. Maggie Southerland, nee Miss Hurley, is visiting friends and relatives at Walnut Grove.
Mr. Will Stell is preparing to build in Moran. He will put in a stock of old hardware. Will is a good clever sort of a fellow and we wish him all success.
Mr. L. H. Gorell has his blacksmith shop under roof and will be ready for work as soon as his tools arrive. Our town now has thirteen buildings completed and more under way.
